Annual Program Planning In General

Pack Program Planning

- FUN of Cub Scouting is still there!
- Pack program events can help support adventure requirements.
- Outdoor adventures, Pack campfire and Pack overnight camping.
- Using the Cub Scout Adventure Analysis Worksheet in planning your annual program.

Den Leader Program Planning

- Coordinating your planning – Pack, District, Council
- Audience for requirements
- Requirements for Rank and Electives
- Read through the new requirements – What works when for your location and climate
- Recognition
- Preparing to Lead the Adventures – Den Meeting Notes

Pack Meeting

BEFORE THE MEETING

- 1. Assign dens to be responsible for flags, the opening ceremony, and the closing ceremony.
- 2. Set up tables or areas for each den to display pictures and items made during this month's adventure
- 3. Be sure the following materials are available for the meeting:
  - Flags for the flag ceremony
  - Display the Scout Oath and Scout Law in the front of the room
  - Display the songs or other announcements

Pack Meeting

A photograph showing a group of people, including children and adults, gathered in a large, open field. They are looking towards the right side of the frame where a rocket is being launched. The rocket is emitting a large plume of white smoke and is rising into the air. The background consists of a line of trees under a clear sky.

GATHERING

- 1. Play a game or Sing a song
- 2. Do an activity outside
- 3. Uniform Check

A photograph of a Scout pack meeting in a large, open field at sunset. Several Scouts in blue and red shirts are kneeling in a circle, and a Scout in a red shirt is standing on the right, possibly leading the ceremony. The sky is a mix of orange and blue, and the field is lush green.
